Infection Prevention & Control Conclave : 2014

Date: 22nd and 23rd November 2014

Dear Colleagues,

Good Infection Control is the need of the hour especially in this era of antimicrobial resistance. We, at Kokilaben Hospital have put together an exciting, comprehensive and dynamic program to update ourselves in this area. This conclave will be driven by an excellent multi-disciplinary team to discuss burning issues in Infection Control and implementation of guidelines in our set up. There is a pre-conference workshop focusing on department specific Infection Control policies. The teaching methods include lectures, discussions, quizzes and the faculty includes microbiologists, infectious disease specialists, clinicians, nurses and administrators from both private and public hospitals. We are fortunate to have Dr Shaheen Mehtar a world renowned expert on Infection Control as faculty in the conclave.

Who Should Attend?

Microbiologists, ID Specialists, Intensivists, Infection Control Nurses, Specialist Nurses, ICU Incharges, Educators, OT Managers, Administrators and all those interested in Infection Prevention & Control and Antibiotic Stewardship
